PREFACE

The Cherry Grove herd of Scotch bred Shorthorns was founded by my grandfather, the late John R. Jones, who being of Virginia birth, wanted as a young man to push on westward and hence when he was 21 years of age, after having worked hard for a little money, purchased a horse which he rode through to the rich Central Illinois prairies, where he herded cattle and drove many a bunch of big, rugged Shorthorn steers through from this country to New York City.

When the railroads came to Illinois and land had advanced to what seemed then to be high prices my grandfather, being a close student of nature and the needs thereof, saw the value of the Cruickshank cattle and bought that class even before their worth were recognized. It was left for my father, Milton E. Jones, to perfect this herd and as to what he did can better be judged by the great show ring records of his wonderful steers, all bred and fed on the Cherry Grove Farm and exhibited in 1890-91-92 and '93 at the greatest shows of America, viz: Chicago, Ill.; Des Moines, Iowa; Columbus, Ohio, and Springfield, Ill., making a record which had never been approached by any other breeder of any country, finishing up at the Columbian Exposition at Chicago winning there both the Grand Championships as best steer any age or any breed and Grand Champion herd over all breeds.

We have not only searched all America for the best cattle to be had at any price, but have imported direct from the best herds of Great Britain, the last purchase being the $5,000 Hercules Diamond. The herd is bred mostly from a line of cattle bred many generations on this farm, having been infused from time to time with the best new blood obtainable, and I believe the cattle thus bred will have the power to reproduce their excellent qualities.

JOHN R. JONES.

Spartan Hero, Armour Bearer and Exported Harmony were the bulls that put Cherry Grove Farms on the map by siring the great show herds of steers that were the only Short-horns in America good enough to defeat all the other breeds. The $17,000 Anoka Champion came from this breeding. She sells with heifer calf at foot, sired by the Avondale bull Selection, champion of the International.

She is a daughter of Craven Knight, one of the best bulls that ever came to America, and her dam was one of the greatest show cows that ever crossed the ocean. She is of Mr. Bruce's famous Fanny tribe. The great Champion bull of this day, Imported Duke of Richmond, was a Bruce-bred Fanny.

Banffdale has been used in the herd and we expected to retain him, but being closely related to so many of the females, we have included him with confidence as a great sire. He was among the winners at Illinois State Fair in probably the best ring of bull calves ever seen at a State Fair.

Imp. Windsor Ronald is a good bull calf by one of the three best bulls Pete Ross saw in Great Britain. This calf is, of course, not looking his best, as the confinement of the trip and quarantine has worked a hardship on the calves, but he is royally bred and there is lots of outcome to him. This family is well known in Scotland, tracing to the same foundation as the Cruickshank "Strawberrys."
